

Direct Access to Home Office

Take advantage of the insurance carriers infinite resources. MRW will give you direct access to certain carriers for new business, underwriting questions, proposal support, and advanced case design.

Participating carriers: Penn Mutual, Lincoln Financial and LSW

New Business	Proposal Support	Underwriting	Advanced Sales Support
Speak to the new business team directly on each case. This will allow you to get the information you need first hand and help you build relationships with carriers.	Utilize the experts on your more complicated case design.	Speak directly to underwriters to help you place your case.	Have access to home office legal and marketing departments. You can have documents reviewed, such as; buy sell plans, financial statements, etc. You can also provide your clients with a free informal business valuation to help determine the real need for coverage and help uncover other sales opportunities.

Have a buy sell document reviewed by the experts at no charge!

If only I could speak directly to the underwriter to help explain the details of my case.

The brokerage company you do business with makes a difference.
